The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday July 7, to Tuesday July 10, 1792.

Whitehall, July 10.

THE following Addreſſes have been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Stafford.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Stafford, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majeſty with Sentiments of unfeigned Gratitude for your late Royal Proclamation.

We have obſerved with Concern and Indignation thoſe criminal and ſeditious Publications, which have of late been ſo induſtriouſly circulated, to alienate the Minds of your Majeſty's faithful and loving Subjects from the happy Conſtitution of Government, Civil and Religious, eſtabliſhed in theſe Realms; and we eſteem it a freſh Inſtance of your Majeſty's paternal and watchful Care over us, that you have, in your Wiſdom and Goodneſs, adopted Meaſures for repreſſing theſe atrocious and alarming Evils.

The unexampled Bleſſings which we all actually experience under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, increaſe our Attachment to your Royal Perſon and our Veneration for that unrivalled Conſtitution, by which the Rights and Liberties of your Majeſty's Subjects are ſo admirably ſecured; and we think it our indiſpenſable Duty to ſtep forward on this Occaſion, and humbly to aſſure your Majeſty that we will exert our utmoſt Endeavours to ſuppreſs and prevent all Attempts that may tend to the Subverſion of our happy Eſtabliſhment, or to the Diſturbance of the Peace and Order of the Community.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bury, Lancaſhire.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bury, entreat your Majeſty's Acceptance of our warmeſt Acknowledgements for the freſh Inſtance of your paternal Care in iſſuing your Royal Proclamation againſt Writings and Correſpondences of a criminal and ſeditious Nature.

It is with extreme Surprize and Abhorrence we learn that there are even Engliſhmen uſing their Endeavours to poiſon the Minds of the People, by cauſing them to be diſſatisfied with that Form of Government, which has for a Century rendered the Britiſh Empire not only the Seat of Happineſs, but the Wonder and Admiration of ſurrounding Nations.

We have, however, the Satisfaction to aſſure your Majeſty, that ſuch wicked Attempts have had no Effect on the Minds of the Inhabitants of this populous Part of the Country; Loyalty to their King and Attachment to the Conſtitution being their prevailing Sentiments.

Senſible of the many invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, we ſhould be wanting in Duty to the beſt of Kings, regardleſs of our own as well as the Intereſts of Poſterity, and unworthy the envied Name of Britons, did we not oppoſe, by every legal Means in our Power, any Attempt to change or overturn our excellent Conſtitution.

To

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Oxford.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WITH grateful Hearts, we, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects of the County of Oxford, approach your Throne to teſtify the Satisfaction that we feel from your Royal Proclamation. The paternal Care and Regard for your People, which you have ſhewn, by warning them of the Danger to which they are expoſed, and by calling upon them to exert themſelves to avert it, deſerves and has our warmeſt Thanks. It is with Concern that we find Emiſſaries endeavouring to raiſe Uneaſineſs and Diſcontent in the Nation, by propagating wild, viſionary and pernicious Doctrines, ſubverſive of all Order and Government, and tending to produce Anarchy, Confuſion and Ruin to this Country. It gives us ſtill further Concern to find that Correſpondences have been entered into with ſundry Perſons in Foreign Parts, endeavouring to raiſe groundleſs Jealouſies and Diſcontents in the Minds of your faithful and loving Subjects, thereby undermining the Britiſh Conſtitution, eſtabliſhed at the Glorious Revolution, which hath ſtood the Admiration and Envy of all the World, and under which the People of Great Britain enjoy true Liberty and perfect Security to their Perſons and Property. And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to diſcover and counteract thoſe who, by their inſidious Practices, would ſap the Foundation and effect the Deſtruction of that glorious Conſtitution, which we ſhall hope to preſerve inviolate, and to deliver down to Poſterity unimpaired, conſidering it as a Duty we owe to ourſelves, our Families, our King and Country.

Signed, at the Requeſt of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Oxford, at a Public Meeting of the ſaid County, at Oxford, the 28th Day of June, 1792,

Thomas Willats, Sheriff, Oxon.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Berks, moſt humbly beg Leave to expreſs to your Majeſty our Veneration for and Attachment to our preſent happy Conſtitution, and at the ſame Time to declare our utter Abhorrence of all thoſe Perſons, who, by their Writings, or by their Diſperſion of ſuch Writings, endeavour to diſſeminate Principles, incompatible with all Civil Government, and diſturb the Public Mind by holding up the vain and deluſive Hopes of improving a Conſtitution founded by the Wiſdom of our Anceſtors, which Experience has taught us to reverence as the moſt perfect of all Political Inſtitutions. We have juſt Reaſon to believe that theſe Endeavours have had little or no Succeſs, but the Calamities which, from Time to Time, have ariſen from ſimilar Machinations, evince the Neceſſity of timely Attention.

We therefore moſt humbly return our warmeſt Thanks to your Majeſty for iſſuing your late ſeaſonable Proclamation, and to the utmoſt of ou Power we will vigilantly execute, in our reſpective Stations, the Meaſures it recommends, being firmly perſuaded that the moſt effectual Way in which we can ſerve our Country is by preſerving, not by altering our preſent excellent Conſtitution.

By the unanimous Order of a numerous Meeting of the County, held at the Town Hall in Reading, the 30th Day of June, 1792.

John Blagrave, Sheriff.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Kent, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our moſt grateful Thanks for that general Care and Attention to the Happineſs and Intereſt of your People, which your Majeſty has ſo unremittingly evinced. Truly ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and happy Government, and of the Anarchy and Confuſion inevitably reſulting from inflammatory and ſeditious Publications, tending to create Diſtruſt and Diſſatisfaction in the Minds of your faithful Subjects, we particularly expreſs our Gratitude for your Majeſty's late gracious Proclamation, ſo well calculated to avert thoſe Evils: And we beg Leave alſo to aſſure your Majeſty, that our moſt zealous Efforts ſhall be exerted in promoting every Meaſure calculated to ſupport and maintain that Conſtitution, by which our Civil and Religious Liberties are ſo effectually ſecured. We have only to add our Prayers for the Continuance of your Majeſty's Life and Health, as a Bleſſing to a free, loyal and affectionate People.

Signed this 2d Day of July, 1792, by the unanimous Order of the Meeting.

Henry Streatfeld, Sheriff.

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Freeholders, Juſtices of Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, and other Heritors of the County of Aberdeen.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Nobility, Freeholders, Juſtices of Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply and Heritors of the County of Aberdeen, preſume, at this Time, to approach the Throne with our ſincere Profeſſions of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Family, and of Gratitude for the recent Inſtance of your attentive Solicitude for the Welfare of your People, in the Proclamation iſſued againſt ſeditious Writings, and for preſerving the good Order and Tranquillity of the Kingdom.

Senſible of the many and ineſtimable Advantages we have derived and now enjoy from the excellent Syſtem of Government among us, we cannot but regard, with Deteſtation, every Attempt which may be made to diminiſh, in the Minds of any of your Majeſty's Subjects, that Reverence for the Conſtitution, and thoſe Principles of Submiſſion to the Laws, which we conſider as eſſential to the Continuance of our National Proſperity, and our private Happineſs; we can, therefore, with Truth aſſure your Majeſty, that we feel it no leſs our Inclination than our Duty both

both to liſten to the ſalutary Admonitions conveyed to us, and to uſe our humble Endeavours in carrying into Execution the Meaſures recommended for maintaining the Public Peace.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Aberdeen, the 22d Day of June, 1792.

Errol, Preſes.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Corporation and Inhabitants of the Borough of Wallingford, in the County of Berks, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's paternal Throne, with the moſt grateful Sentiments for the late Proclamation, ſo happily calculated to avert the greateſt of Evils, Civil Tumult and Diſtraction, and to preſerve inviolate the Rights and Liberties we enjoy under our excellent Conſtitution, the Work and Wiſdom of Ages, the Envy and Admiration of Foreigners, the Model of Order and Happineſs; by which, under your Majeſty's auſpicious Rule, ours is become eminently the happy Iſland.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen and Gentlemen, met in a General Meeting of the Juſtices of the Peace, Freeholders, Commiſſioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Forfar.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen and Gentlemen of the County of Forfar, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the warmeſt Sentiments of Gratitude for the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's paternal Government, and for the Care taken to ſecure the Continuance of them by your late gracious Proclamation.

Reflecting on the unexampled Proſperity and Happineſs which have been ſo long the peculiar Portion of this Nation, we regard with Veneration the wiſe Conſtitution of Government, to which, under God, they are chiefly owing, and feel ourſelves called upon to expreſs our Abhorrence of every Attempt to vilify it's Principles, and weaken it's Security. Enjoying the undiſturbed Poſſeſſion of our Liberties, of our Property, and of every Civil Right, we ſee no Reaſon for endangering this invaluable Inheritance by ſpeculative Experiments for it's Improvements. We are anxious to tranſmit it in full Vigour to our Poſterity; and, ſatisfied that the Good of our Country is inſeparably connected with it's Preſervation, we behold with Indignation the criminal Arts that have been employed of late to inſtil unfounded Jealouſies into the Minds of the People, and to diminiſh their Affection for a Conſtitution, which is the Admiration and Envy of ſurrounding Nations. We therefore conſider it as our Duty and our Intereſt to liſten to your Majeſty's paternal Admonitions, and to co-operate zealouſly, according to our reſpective Stations, in maintaining a juſt Regard for the eſtabliſhed Conſtitution, in ſupporting the Authority of Law, and in repreſſing every Attempt to excite Diſcontents among the People, and to ſeduce them from their Duty.

That your Majeſty may long continue to behold the increaſing Proſperity of your Subjects, and to receive convincing Proofs their affectionate Attachment to your mild and equitable Government, is our ſincere Prayer.

Signed by our Præſes, in our Name and by our Appointment, at Forfar, the 23d Day of June, 1792 Years.

Northeſk.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply and Heretors of the County of Roxburgh.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply and Heretors of the County of Roxburgh, humbly approach your Majeſty with unfeigned Aſſurances of loyal and faithful Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government at all Times; and more eſpecially to aſſure your Majeſty of the grateful Senſe we entertain at the preſent Moment of the gracious Proof by which your Majeſty has been recently pleaſed to manifeſt your paternal Solicitude for the Welfare of your Subjects, and for the Preſervation at once of the Liberties and the Security of the Nation.

We have obſerved, with equal Concern and Indignation, the Deſigns of ſeditious and ill-diſpoſed Perſons to diſturb the Tranquillity and interrupt the Proſperity of the Kingdom, by endeavouring to withdraw from your Majeſty's Perſon and Family the Affections and Allegiance of your faithful and loyal People, to diminiſh our Reverence and Attachment for the excellent Conſtitution of our Government, and to inſtil Principles deſtructive of all true Liberty, as well as Order, and incompatible not only with the Well-being of this particular Country, but with the Exiſtence of civilized Society itſelf. Nor can we ſee with Indifference theſe Views of deſperate Men, hoſtile alike to the Freedom and the Happineſs of Great Britain, openly abetted by ſeveral Societies and Deſcriptions of your Majeſty's Subjects, who are diligently employed in recommending and diſpenſing to their Country the Poiſon prepared for it by Foreign and Domeſtic Enemies. We are at the ſame Time ſincerely concerned, that what we deem an ill-adviſed and miſtaken Zeal for a theoretick Improvement of our Conſtitution, manifeſted at this inauſpicious Period, by ſome Individuals, reſpectable for their Rank and Character, ſhould, as we conceive, although contrary to their own Intentions, co-operate with the fatal and traiterous Deſigns of Men of a very different Deſcription.

We beg Leave alſo to expreſs our Abhorrence of thoſe Tumults and Diſorders, which, on various Grounds and Pretences, have diſturbed of late the Public Peace, and invaded the Security and Property of Individuals in different Parts of this Iſland, Iſland, and more eſpecially thoſe which have recently taken Place in the Metropolis of this Part of the united Kingdom.

Entertaining theſe Sentiments, and animated by the paternal and ſeaſonable Admonitions conveyed in your Majeſty's Royal Proclamation, we eſteem it our Parts, both as good Subjects and as Perſons ſincerely attached to the Conſtitution of our Country, to oppoſe theſe dangerous and criminal Practices to the utmoſt of our Power, not only by a due and diligent Execution of the Laws provided in ſuch Caſes, ſo far as we or any of us may be entruſted with the ſame, but alſo by diſavowing for ourſelves, and diſcountenancing in others, that miſchievous Spirit of Diſcontent with the preſent, and Deſire of Change, for which the ſubſtantial Bleſſings we enjoy under the approved Excellence of our Conſtitution, and your Majeſty's juſt and mild Adminiſtration, leave no reaſonable Ground.

We therefore ſeize this Occaſion to profeſs our Satisfaction with the Form of our Government as eſtabliſhed at the Glorious Revolution, and ſince confirmed by ſubſequent Laws. We are convinced that the unexampled Proſperity, Security and Freedom which diſtinguiſh this happy Nation, are to be aſcribed ſolely, under Divine Providence, to that admirable Conſtitution, which has been matured by the progreſſive Wiſdom and Experience of Ages, and was eſtabliſhed and ſecured not more by the Spirit and Virtue than by the profound and prudent Diſcretion of our Anceſtors at the Revolution. We are too ſincere in our Love of Civil Liberty, of which we eſteem ourſelves at preſent in full Poſſeſſion, to ſtake that ineſtimable Gift of Providence, and rich Inheritance from brave and wiſe Anceſtors, on the Hazard of fallacious and deluſive Theories; and we have ſeen no Reaſon to doubt that the Wiſdom and Integrity of Parliament are ſufficient, without the Interpoſition of unauthorized Individuals, to provide for any Alterations which Change of Time and Circumſtances either have or may hereafter render expedient.

Permit us, therefore, humbly to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall be ever ready, both to defend with our Blood the Laws and Liberty of our Country againſt it's open Enemies, and to ſupport your Majeſty in all legal and conſtitutional Meaſures for defeating that Spirit of Sedition and Anarchy, which the ſecret Enemies of your Majeſty and People are labouring, we truſt in Vain, to foment.

That your Majeſty may long continue to enjoy the Gratitude, and to ſhare in the Happineſs of a loyal and contented People, is our moſt ardent Prayer.

Signed by Order, and in Preſence of the Meeting, at Jedburgh, the 26th Day of June, 1792 Years.

Napier, Preſes.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Brecon, impreſſed with the deepeſt Senſe of Gratitude to your Majeſty, for your conſtant and paternal Care of your People, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, with our moſt ſincere Acknowledgments for the Bleſſings we enjoy under your mild and auſpicious Reign; but more eſpecially for your late ſeaſonable Proclamation, for diſcouraging the Authors and Diſperſers of ſeditious Writings.

It is not without the deepeſt Concern, and moſt anxious Apprehenſion of the Conſequences, that we have obſerved the late Increaſe of Publications, replete with ſuch Doctrines as are not only againſt what have been hitherto deemed the fundamental Principles of our own, but ſubverſive of all Government.

We therefore beg Leave humbly to aſſure your Majeſty of our ſincere Attachment to your Perſon and Family, and that we will at all Times, by every proper Exertion in our Power, ſupport and defend the happy Conſtitution of our Country, as it is now by Law eſtabliſhed.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiff, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Brecon.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Brecon, think it a Duty incumbent upon us to return our moſt ſincere and grateful Thanks to your Majeſty, for your tender Care and Attention in iſſuing forth your Royal Proclamation, for the preventing and repreſſing of any ſubtle and ſeditious Attacks, that might be concerted by turbulent and deſigning Men, to overturn our moſt venerable and happy Conſtitution. Conſcious of the numerous Bleſſings and Advantages we enjoy, under our preſent excellent and well-conſidered Form of Government, and being anxious to enſure them to our Poſterity, we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall always be ready to diſcourage and counteract any ſecret or open Attempt that ſhall be made to undermine or ſubvert ſo valuable and unrivalled a Syſtem.

In witneſs whereof, the ſaid Bailiff, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the ſaid Borough have hereunto ſet their Hands, and cauſed their Common Seal of the ſaid Borough to be hereunto affixed, this 27th Day of June, 1792.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Portreeves, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Aſhburton.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreeves, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Aſhburton, deeply impreſſed with the warmeſt Sentiments of Affection and Loyalty for your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, beg Leave to offer our grateful Thanks for the wiſe and prudent

prudent Meaſures your Majeſty hath (as a freſh Inſtance of your conſtant Care for the Welfare of your People) directed by your late Royal Proclamation, for ſuppreſſing thoſe ſeditious Publications which have been ſo induſtriouſly circulated.

Juſtly influenced by the happy State of this Kingdom, and the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, we truſt the People of England will in this, and all other Occaſions, contribute with us their Endeavours to maintain due Obedience to the Laws, Peace and good Order in Society; and unite in ſupporting our excellent Conſtitution, which hath ſtood the Teſt of Ages, and is at this Time the Admiration of the World, from the dangerous Attempts of wild ſpeculative Enthuſiaſts.

Given at the Chapel of St. Lawrence, within the ſaid Borough, the 19th Day of June, 1792.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal Subjects, the Gentry, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers and others reſiding in and near the Staffordſhire Pottery, impreſſed with a deep filial Senſe of your parental Care and Concern for the Welfare and Happineſs of us your Subjects, manifeſted in ſuch numerous Acts and Inſtances ever ſince your Acceſſion to the Britiſh Throne, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, with all Love and Loyalty, to expreſs our warmeſt Thanks for the very ſeaſonable late Royal Proclamation, which all good Subjects thought it was high Time to iſſue.

Under a due Senſe how much ſeditious Publications and ſeditious Aſſociations tend to inflame the Minds of the People, how ſubverſive they may ultimately be of our unrivalled and envied Conſtitution, how ruinous to that Liberty with which this Land is bleſſed, we think it a Duty to acknowledge, in the moſt thankful and public Manner, the Interference of your Majeſty's Proclamation. We conſider it as wiſely adapted to quell that reſtleſs Spirit of Sedition, which has been too prevalent, as conducive to the Happineſs of all your Subjects. With theſe Sentiments we beg Leave to approach your Throne, and to aſſure your Majeſty of our ſincere Attachment to your Perſon and Family, and of our moſt hearty Approbation of that happy Form of Government, both in Church and State, which we now enjoy.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble and unanimous Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Newbury, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Newbury, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majeſty with Offers of our unfeigned Thanks for the additional Proof of your Majeſty's anxious Concern for the internal Peace and Tranquillity of your People, ſo zealouſly expreſſed in your Majeſty's late Royal Proclamation. We receive it with every Sentiment of Reſpect and Gratitude, and aſſure your Majeſty of our unfeigned Attachment to the Form of Government, Civil and Religious, happily eſtabliſhed within this Realm, and that, by a ſtrict Obedience to the Duties your Majeſty enjoins, we will endeavour to convince your Majeſty of our Reſolution to diſcourage and diſcountenance every Attempt againſt Public Order and Tranquillity. We reflect with Gratitude on our preſent well-regulated Freedom; and it will be our Duty, by every poſſible Exertion, to inculcate in the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects a juſt and grateful Senſe of the many ineſtimable Bleſſings that may be enjoyed by an implicit Obedience to the Laws, and a zealous Attachment to the Form of Government under which they live; and to ſhew them, by our own good Examples, that it will be to their Intereſt, Happineſs and Security; both as Individuals and Members of a great Community, to maintain and preſerve, by their moſt vigorous Exertions, the preſent happy Conſtitution eſtabliſhed in this Kingdom.

Given under our Common Seal the 28th Day of June, 1792.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Town Council of Forfar, in North Britain, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, with Aſſurances of our unſhaken Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Family and Government.

While we view with equal Deteſtation and Contempt all ſeditious Publications, tending to weaken our Senſe of the Bleſſings we enjoy, under your Majeſty's mild Adminiſtration of our well poiſed and limited Monarchy, we are not the leſs ſenſible of your Majeſty's parental Attention, in endeavouring to repreſs Licentiouſneſs and Sedition.

Like other human Inſtitutions, our Conſtitution may have it's Imperfections, and will be ſubject to Decay; thoſe it is the common Intereſt of your Majeſty, your Peers and faithful People, to improve and repair, by the wiſe and temperate Means which the Conſtitution itſelf has provided for it's own Preſervation. We, your faithful Subjects, are under no Apprehenſion that any Defects will long exiſt in our Conſtitution, without having an adequate Remedy provided for their Correction.

In the preſent Situation of Things, we conſider a juſt Confidence in your Majeſty's conſtitutional Diſpoſition to be of the higheſt Importance to our Welfare: This your Majeſty may be aſſured we poſſeſs. We make this voluntary and unanimous Declaration of our Sentiments, which we believe to be in Uniſon with the Reſt of our Fellow Subjects, hoping your Majeſty may thereby be enabled to reign over us with Eaſe and Security; and in hopes alſo that your Majeſty's wiſe and powerful Mediation may reſtore Peace, and that our Example may diffuſe the Bleſſings of true Liberty among all the Nations that ſurround us.

That your Majeſty may long reign in Health and Happineſs, and tranſmit the Sceptre of the Britiſh

British Empire unimpaired to your lateſt Poſterity, is the Prayer put up with Fervour to Almighty God, by your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Signed in Preſence and by Appointment of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of Forfar, at Forfar, the 15th Day of June, 1792 Years, and the Seal of the Burgh is appended.

George Dempſter, Provoſt.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

THE Freeholders, Juſtices of Peace and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Nairn eagerly embrace every Opportunity of avowing a ſtedfaſt Loyalty to the beſt of Kings, and firm Attachment to the Britiſh Conſtitution. Deeply impreſſed with theſe Sentiments, they humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty they will pay the moſt watchful Attention to the Views of your Royal Proclamation.

Signed in their Preſence, and by their Appointment, by their Præſes.

James Brodie, Præſes.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Congleton, in the County of Cheſter, has been preſented to the King by the Right Honorable the Maſter of the Rolls, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Congleton, beg Leave moſt humbly to preſent our ſincereſt Thanks for your Majeſty's paternal Care for the Peace and Welfare of this Realm, manifeſted by the late Royal Proclamation.

We deſire at the ſame Time to expreſs our unfeigned Affection and Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Family, and to our moſt excellent Conſtitution in Church and State, and to teſtify our Abhorrence of thoſe wicked Publications which have lately been ſo induſtriouſly diſperſed, and which by miſleading the Ignorant, tend to excite Uneaſineſs, Diſcontent and Sedition, and to diſturb that Peace and Proſperity which this happy Country under your Majeſty's Government now, by God's Bleſſing, ſo eminently enjoys.

We alſo beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, each in our ſeveral Stations, ſteadily exert our Endeavours to diſcourage all ſuch illegal Writings and Practices, and to preſerve Public Order and Tranquillity.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Gentlemen of the Borough Town and Neighbourhood of Lymington, the County of Southampton, has been preſented to the King by Sir Harry Burrard and Lieutenant-Colonel Burrard, Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Gentlemen of the Borough Town and Neighbourhood of Lymington, in the County of Southampton, beg Leave to return your Majeſty our humble Thanks for your late gracious Proclamation, an to aſſure your Majeſty that we are duly ſenſible of your Majeſty's continued Attention to the Welfare of your People.

We obſerve with great Concern the Attempts which have of late been made, to diſturb the Peace and good Order of this Country; we truſt that, under Divine Providence, all ſuch Counſels will be defeated, through the Firmneſs, Vigour and Watchfulneſs of your Majeſty's Goverment; and we aſſure your Majeſty we are ready to ſtand forth, at any Riſque, to ſupport our eſtabliſhed Conſtitution and Laws, and to reſiſt thoſe who ſhall wickedly endeavour to ſubvert them.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the ancient Town and Port of Haſting has been preſented to the King by Edward Milward the Younger, Eſq; Mayor, accompanied by the Right Honorable the Maſter of the Rolls, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Town and Port, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the ancient Town and Port of Haſting, beg Leave to offer offer to your Majeſty our moſt ſincere and humble Thanks for the Royal Proclamation, lately iſſued by your Majeſty, againſt the Publication and Diſperſion of ſeditious Writings.

Fully ſenſible that the Happineſs of this Country depends upon a juſt Confidence in the Wiſdom and Integrity of Parliament, and a zealous Attachment to the Government and Conſtitution, both in Church and State, as by Law eſtabliſhed, we conſider your Majeſty's Endeavour to repreſs the lawleſs Attempts which have been made to diminiſh that Confidence and Attachment, as an Example of your Majeſty's paternal Attention to the Preſervation of our Rights and Liberties, demanding the warmeſt Returns of Affection and Gratitude.

We regard the wiſe and wholeſome Proviſions made at the Time of the Glorious Revolution, as the firm and ſecure Baſis of our Happineſs at Home, and of our Glory Abroad. We view with Pleaſure and Admiration the ſubſequent Laws that have been enacted to confirm and extend our Rights and Liberties; and we look with Deteſtation and Abhorrence upon thoſe ſeditious Publications which, while they vilify the laudable Exertions, and degrade the happy Prudence of our Forefathers, tend only to excite an ignoble Spirit of Diſcontent and Jealouſy in the preſent Race, and to overthrow the Fabrick of our excellent Conſtitution by popular Tumult and Commotion.

All ſuch Attempts we will never fail to exert our utmoſt Endeavours to ſuppreſs. By a due Obedience to your Majeſty's Proclamation we will manifeſt at once our Affection to your Royal Perſon, and our Attachment to the Laws and Conſtitution of the Land in which we have the Happineſs to live.
